ABOUT ME

As a computer science student, I thrive on developing projects that encompass both front-end and back-end technologies. My understanding of various modern technologies enables me to deliver robust applications. I am well-versed in popular frameworks such as React, Angular, Django and Fast API. My proficiency extends to working with both SQL (MySQL, PostgreSQL) and NoSQL (MongoDB, Redis) databases. I am motivated by contributing to the open-source community, and my passion for programming is evident in my work. Besides coding, I enjoy listening to music in my free time.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

2021	Portfolio I have curated and designed my own website featuring my works that act as my portfolio. I've created it from scratch using a front-end framework using HTML , CSS , Bootstrap and JS .
2022	Linktree clone Static website created using HTML, CSS and JavaScript from scratch. Mirroring the function of popular Link tree but with vanilla JavaScript .
2022	Movie Time A Movie reservation system created for my college project using Django and MySQL as database.
2023	Upwork-Notifier-Bot This Python script fetches new job postings from one or more RSS feeds on Upwork and sends notifications to a Telegram chat with relevant job details.
2023	Weather-app A simple weather app made using Angular JS and TypeScript . With search and real-time weather information.
2023	Invoice-Generator Simple Invoice Generator made using python Flask mini web framework and Mongo DB as database.

CERTIFICATIONS

2022	Google IT Automation with Python Professional Certificate Google career certificate courses which include 6 courses which cover every single aspect of being Python automation expert.
2023	JavaScript Algorithms and Data Structures Certification offered by freecodecamp which has a huge number of projects and test to get this certificate.
